Liberty Arts Now Accepting Registrations for Sculpture-Based Winter 2007 Classes Gift Certificates Available For the Holidays

Durham, NC - Liberty Arts is now accepting registrations for 2007 Winter Classes. Liberty Arts, a non-profit sculpture studio and bronze casting facility, offers sculpture-based classes for all levels. Classes this season include Introduction to Bronze Casting, Art Metal with Jimmy Alexander, and Mold-Making for Sculptors. Classes run from late January through early March 2007. For additional information about classes or Liberty Arts visit www.libertyartscasting.org. To order Gift Certificates for Liberty Arts Classes call Jennifer Collins at 919-682-2673 or email libertyarts@verizon.net.

Students may register through secured online payment at the website, or may mail in their registration and check to: Liberty Arts Classes, 538 Foster Street, Durham, NC 27701. Registrations must be received at least one week prior to start of class. Liberty Arts Class Withdrawal Policy is on website.

Partial scholarships are available to students for the Introduction to Bronze Casting classes. Scholarships will be given based on financial need and dedication to artform. Scholarships cover half of the class tuition and a portion of material fees outside of tuition. One scholarship will be awarded for each Introduction to Bronze Casting class. To request a Scholarship Application call or email Jennifer Collins at 919-682-2673 or libertyarts@verizon.net.

Liberty Arts Class and Scholarship Program have been made possible by the generous support of the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation and Wachovia Bank.
