LIBERTY ARTS ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS FOR SCULPTURE-BASED FALL CLASSES PARTIAL SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Durham, NC – Liberty Arts is now accepting registrations for their 2006 Fall Classes. Liberty Arts, a non-profit sculpture studio and bronze casting facility, offers sculpture-based classes for all levels. Classes this season include Introduction to Bronze Casting, Art Metal with Jimmy Alexander, and Weekend Workshops for Two in Life Casting. Classes run from late September through early December 2006. For additional information about classes or Liberty Arts visit www.libertyartscasting.org or call Jennifer Collins at 919-682-2673 or email libertyarts@verizon.net.

Students may register through secured online payment at the website, or may mail in their registration and check to: Liberty Arts Classes, 538 Foster Street, Durham, NC 27701. Registrations must be received one week prior to start of class.

Partial scholarships are available to students for the Introduction to Bronze Casting classes. Scholarships will be given based on financial need and dedication to artform. Scholarships cover half of the class tuition. Students are responsible for half of tuition and any additional fees outside of tuition. One scholarship will be awarded for each Introduction to Bronze Casting class. To request a Scholarship Application call or email Jennifer Collins at 919-682-2673 or libertyarts@verizon.net. Scholarship Applications must be turned in at least two weeks before the start of a class.

Liberty Arts Class and Scholarship Program have been made possible by the generous support of the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation and Wachovia Bank.
