

LIBERTY ARTS NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kill Date, July 1, 2007

Contact: Jennifer Collins, Executive Director

Phone: 919-682-2673

Email: LibertyArts@verizon.net

LibertyArts to Receive “Bottles for Change” Proceeds from Restaurant Starlu during Month of June 2007

Durham, NC - LibertyArts, a nonprofit educational sculpture studio and art casting facility located in downtown Durham, NC, has been chosen by Restaurant Starlu (also in Durham) to receive proceeds from the restaurant’s “Bottles for Change” charity giving program during the month of June (2007).

During the entire month of June, LibertyArts will receive proceeds from selected wines served by the glass and bottle. In addition, on Tuesday, June 19th Restaurant Starlu will donate 15% of guest checks when customers present a promotional voucher available from LibertyArts. Supporters may request a vouchers by contacting libertyarts@verizon.net. Vouchers will also be available at LibertyArts Casting Facility during the Durham Farmer’s Market on Saturdays between 10 am and noon.

LibertyArts invites the community to join them on Tuesday, June 19th at 7 p.m. for conversation, drinks and dinner to celebrate and support LibertyArts’ programs and its mission to Transform the Triangle by encouraging and supporting the creation, promotion and placement of sculpture in public and private spaces.

Liberty Arts offers sculpture-related classes for the community, affordable short-term studio space for artists, and is available to create commissioned works. For more information about LibertyArts visit www.libertyartscasting.org.

For more information about Restaurant Starlu and their “Bottles for Change” program, visit www.starlu.com.

--END--